

Municipal Building, Lodi, Cal., June 23, 1915.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi convened pursuant to adjournment of June 21st at 8:00 p.m. There were present Trustees Hale, Black, Deaver, Keeney, and Folendorf.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The matter of the applications of C. J. Bender and Jacob G. Hieb for wholesale liquor licenses which were laid over from the meeting of June 21st were taken up for consideration. The applicants above named and their bondsmen being present by invitation of the Board Chairman Keeney of the Committee on Public Morals and Safety stated that while no formal complaints had been filed as to violations of the liquor ordinance it had been intimated to members of the Board that the provisions of Ordinance No. 78 were not at all times strictly adhered to and that it was the purpose of the Board to rigidly enforce the law in all respects. The applicants were admonished that all appearances of violations must be guarded against under penalty of revocation of licenses and forfeiture of bonds. From the standpoint of the liquor dealers Adolph Bauer addressed the Board at length and remarks were also made by Dan Seyer and Jacob G. Hieb.

The application of C. J. Bender was taken up and being found regular and no protest having been filed, upon motion of Trustee Keeney, seconded by Trustee Folendorf, the license was granted.

The application of Jacob G. Hieb being found regular and no protest having been filed, upon motion of Trustee Folendorf, seconded by Trustee Keeney, the license was granted.

The Lodi Sentinel submitted a proposal for doing the official advertising for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1915, as follows: 75 cents per square for the first insertion; 50 cents per square for each subsequent insertion. The matter was referred to a committee of the whole.

Miscellaneous bills amounting to $400 were allowed and ordered paid.

Upon motion the matter of utilizing the dirt from the excavation under the First National Bank building was referred to the Street Committee and the Street Superintendent with full power to act.

Upon motion the Board adjourned to meet again at 8:00 p.m. Friday, July 2, 1915.

Attest:

N. S. Clark
City Clerk.
